Fullmetal Alchemist – The Abducted Alchemist is exactly what the title promises, and although it has some fun action pieces, the book is overall skippable for most people. It's not terrible, but it sticks a little too close to the expected formula to be engaging outside of the larger franchise it's tied to.

Review: Fullmetal Alchemist – The Abducted Alchemist (Vol

Shelves: fullmetal-alchemist, japanese-fiction, light-novel This was a fun read, but the first couple of chapters, where the situation is established, drag a little bit. I was particularly disappointed that alchemy plays no role in the storyline until the final battle.
